For some days past grave fears have been entertained of the safety of two steamers, the Fleurs Castle, and the Moskica, the former of which was bound from Hankow

to London, and the latter from Hankow to Odessa-both tea laden. A telegram received in Hongkong from London to-day proves that these fears had but only too. good foundation, both steamers having been lost near Cape Guardafui, the Fleura Castle at Rass Esser, and the Moskuta at Rass Hafoun. No mention is made of any loss of life, and we therefore trust that the crows of the steamers suc-PASSENGERS arriving in Hongkong, or any ceeded in getting safely on shore, and that sult the files of local, China, Japan, enviable position on land, as the natives in American, English, Indian or Austra- the neighbouring parts have not much of lian newspapers, are invited to call at the good Samaritan in them. The Fleurs Castle-has been a regular China trader since 1874, when she was built for Mesers Skinner & Co., and was commanded on this her last voyage by Captain Thompson. On the 0th June she left Hankow for London, with a cargo of 2,891,000 lbs. of tea, passed Woosung on the 12th, and reached Singapore on the 22nd. From that time up till the receipt of the telegram to-day nothing has been heard of her, but although doubts as to her safety were freely expressed, it was hoped that the confusion which was supposed to exist in the Canal was sufficient to explain why her passage through it had not been announced. The Moskica, originally launched by Messrs Caird & Co. in 1867 under the name of the Hanmonia, was purchased by the Russian Government during the Russo-Turkish War, and became one of what was called the Volunteer Fleet. Some time ago, after having been refitted at Marselles, she was pitched upon to take this season's teas to Odessa. She carried a crew of upwards of 100 men, wearing the Russian Naval uniform, and was commanded by Captain Tchirikoff, a Lieutenant in the Russian Navy. On the 27th of May, she left Hankow with 1,970,729 lbs. of tea on board, passed Woosung on May 29th and arrived at Singapore on the 6th of June. Nothing further being heard of her, fears as to her safety were naturally felt, and we now learn that she and the Fleurs Castle have suffered the same fate. Thirty goiness premium for insurance had been paid on both vessels in London. We learn that Mr.P. Evans, who was at first believed to have been a passenger on board the Moskwa, took passage to Odessa. in the steamer Massalia. A later telegram than the one we have referred to states that the craws have been saved.

THE Japan Gazette says :- A telegram was the Kokonoye Maru, which left for Hakodate on the 21st instant, had gone ashore off Urisomura, Iwamaigori, Fukushima ken but that all passengers and crew were safe. Tun following letter signed "Bric-a-Brac," appears in the Shanghai Courier:-

that a Chinese teacher in Hongkoug has presented to the City Hall Museum of that place a curiosity in the shape of an unhulled grain of rice inscribed with thirtystanza of poetry, composed by the teacher himself and written out at length without any contractions. Your contemporary, the China Mail, from whom you quote the informstion, said that "it seems almost incredible, but it is a fact that the whole of these thirty-three characters are inscribed on one grain of unhulled rice." While reading the item yesterday, I happened to inform my compradore of this, and he, who has been a resident here for more than he was very violent. Stewart, who was fifteen years, says that this is nothing to fined 50 cents or one day's imprisonment compare with what he has seen. He says that about eight years ago, a Chinaman | now fined 50 cents or two days' imprisoncame from Hankow. He lived in the Fohkien Road, and dealt in curionities of this kind, and sold them for the low price of $1 each. The curiosities in question consisted of sesamum seed inscribed with not less than sixty distinct Chinese characters. My compradore further says that he bought one himself, and on examination through a magnifying glass, he discovered the characters to be quite clear. In proof of this assertion, another Chinaman this morning corroborated his statement.

INQUESTS.

Four inquests were held at the Government Civil Hospital this afternoon, before the Coroner, Mr H. E. Wodehouse, and a Jury composed of the following gentlemen: Mesars J. J. Bell-Irving, D. L. de J. Alemao and J. F. W. Gerdes.

The first was on the death of a Chinese male adult, whose body was taken to the Hospital yesterday. The deceased was age, worked as a street coolie, and lived in Ship Street. He had been ailing with diarrhose for several days previous to his death, and had died some time between Sunday night and Monday morning while sleeping outside the door of the house where he resided. The Jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes.

Chinese male whose body was found floating in the harbour in front of the Sailor's Home about one o'clock this morning. The body was identified as that of Lee Achik (24), a coppersmith by trade, by one of his fellow workmen. The man who identified the body said that the deceased had been insane for some days previous to Sunday last, on the afternoon of which day he left his employment and went to the Prays. followed by the witness. Seeing witness behind him the deceased turned round and told him that he was going to the Quong Tai coppersmith's shop. Witness went home again, and heard nothing further of him until he viewed the body in the morgue this forencen. A verdict of found drowned was returned. The third was held touching the death a man who was arrested in Jardine's Bazaar yesterday evening. As he appeared to be very ill he was taken to the Hospital where he remained until this forenoun when he died. Dr Stockwell said h was of opinion that death had resulted from diarrhos and general debility. The enquiry was adjourned until Wednesday next, owing to the absence of the constable who had arrested him.

In the fourth inquest the deceased was named Li Ato. He had fallen down several of the steps leading from Peddar's Hill Wyndham Street on Friday afternoon, and sustained to severe injuries that he had remained insensible from the time he repoived them until his death, which took place in the Hospital yesterday morning. The deceased resided in Wellington Street and had not been engaged in any employment for two or three years. He was under the influence of liquor when he met with the accident. Dr Stockwell described the wounds as being a slight embrasure on the right knee, an embrasure of the skin over the left temple, and a large contusion on the right side. Dr Stockwell was of opinion that death resulted from these injuries.

A recent issue of the Hu Pao contains the following: -The Shanghai Che-haien has been in office for many years and his reputation has, in general, been fair; but lately there ran a rumour that he would be sent away from the Shanghai magistracy. On The second was held on the death of a account of our inability to find out the exact truth from either memorials or decrees we have refrained from publishing anything concerning this affair. On the 32nd of this month, however, we found in the official report from Sonchow, an item to the effect that the Provincial Treasurer had issued a placard which contains this sentence, -"The Governor of this Prevince has received an official despatch from Viceroy Tso to deprive Moh Chang-tazo of his Shanghai magistracy and to have him sont to Nanking for examination; ordering Fan Shou-t'ang to fill the vacancy at Shanghai for the present."-But on what account Moh is to go to Nanking for examination we are unable to decide at the moment, as rumours are various in regard to the sudden removal of this official, who has served in one district for so long a time. The following, however, are some of the reasons given. Moh is reported to have grown old, and has not is:been very clear in his judgments or very correct in his decisions; honce, the vulgar term him "Moh the stupid"; on this account perhaps his superiors think it best to take the office from him. It is also reported that a certain merchant by the name of Lo Ki-baien compelled his adopted daughter to be his concubine, and the case being known to the adopted daughter's own mother, she refused to allow the daughter to return to Lo, who instituted a t against the girl's mother before Moh. This Magistrate however decided the case against the plaintiff, Lo, and had him put in prison. Lo's wife appealed to the authorities at Peking, and the case was accordingly referred to the Vicercy Tso, who examined into it two or three times, and it

THE NEW JAIL AT HONGKONG. (L. & C. Express.)

The public of Hongkong have gained another victory by the decision of the Colonial Office to reject the scheme for erecting a new jail on Stonecutters Island, and are now no doubt beginning to experience a sense of relief from the anxiety they have been labouring under for long with reference to the affairs of The question of the new was one to which great opposition was offered, but it was strongly supported by Sir John Pope Hennessy, who had set his mind on carrying it out, Fortunately, however, it was necessary to submit the proposal to the head-quarters, and owing, possibly, to what was known regarding other similar schemes, the Secretary of State, for the Colonies went deeply into the subject, with the result mentioned. It is stated that other arrangements are under consideration, with the view. no doubt, of increasing the efficiency of the jail as it exists, but the exact nature lorchs-owner. The lorchs-owner appealed of the arrangements is not in any way indicated. Prison accommodation in the East is an important matter, and the experiences of Singapore and Penang form a good guide as to the most preferable system, and as all the requisite information is to be easily obtained there will be no difficulty in deciding that point. If a new iail is decided on, of course the site will have to be well considered, and it is on this that public opinion must be heard, because those on the spot who are well acquainted with the peculiarities of the people and other important details requiring attention can bring forward arguments which ought to be listened to with respect. It is not sufficient to start an idea and insist on its being carried out in the face of public opposition, but unfortunately this was the policy which characterised to a great extent the administration of the Governor of Hongkong, and which caused such an amount of ill-feeling. this case, however, a right decision has been arrived at by the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and even the presence of Sir John Pope Hennessy in England has not authore position to give the satisfactory explanation before them. Their progress in writing to secure the adoption of an ill-advised The same result may happen justified in looking forward with hope to the settlement of all their grievances, and a

On 10th June, M. Conraux requested an audience of the Fu Tu-t'ung, but was refused. On 12th, word was sent to him by the Fu Tu-t'ung that he had better await for two or three days an answer from the Governor of Pu Kuei, and he waited patiently from 12th to 15th, during which time the scheme was hatched which was to end so fearful. Was this the answer to be expected from Pit Kuei, I wonder? About 6 p.m. on the 15th June, as M. Conraits was leaving his room, he saw crowd of soldiers, judging from their grey clothing, turning the corner of the street but they were not in usual uniform or buttoned, and were armed with sticks known as fu-pang. They were in a great state of excitement, and uttering loud cries and threats. M. Conraux entered his room, the only other occupant of the house being his cook. who was preparing the ovening meal. The soldiers, who seemed suddenly transformed into brigands, soon cleared away the slight paling made of mil'et stalks, and surrounded the house. One fellow, decently dressed, got to the door of the room and saluted the priest, who asked what he wanted and what the noise meant. Before any answer could be returned, the soldiers rushed into the room through the door and the broken windows, and rained blows from sticks and leaving a daugerous weapon in their hands. M. Conraux took up his revolver, lying on the farniture, intending to fire it off in the air at once for fear it might be used against himself. But before he could put his finger on the trigger he was thrown over, and antagonism was unknown, and prosperity ing the most strengous efforts to discover. soldier, a mandarin with copper button, is harmony. The road to the river (about b li long) was selected, and the vehicle was surrounded by the butchers, who seemed quite elated at the wonderful victory they had achieved, and called out "Let's drown, "Let's drown them." June 30.—Resolutions were moved at a meeting on the Egyptian policy of the Government, at Willia' Rooms, yesterday, which declared it the duty of the Government not to consent to any settlement of Egyptian officers inconsistent with their pledge, and that it is of great importance to make effective provision for the protection of the lives and property of English-Northcote supports the resolution.

mission was by tickets issued by the Duke of Sutherland. The Dukes of Buccleuch, and of Northumberland, also, Lords Salisbury, Carnarvon and Hartington and the Marquis of Waterford, also Sir Stafford Northcote, Baron Henry Deveaux and Henry Chaplin were present. Lord Salisbury in supporting the first resolution said that he quite agreed with the sentiment that the Government should be turned out, and he would be willing on all proper occasions to take steps to that end. The measures and actions of the Government were little consistent with the honor of Europe, but his object at present was to arouse the opinion of the country," to guide it at the moment of greatest danger. He reviewed the policy of the Government, pointing out the way in which they had suffered their demands to be disregarded, and declared, that unless they removed Arabi Pashi, their whole position in the East would be jeopardized, and England would lose her ancient reputation. Northcote supported the second resolution, and both were carried.

Alexandria, June 26.—The Khedive has written to Ragheb Pasha, President of the Council, recapiculating the recent events in Egypt, which the Khedive describes as deplerable. He points out that, notwithstanding his assurances, foreigners continuo to abandon Egypt; that commercial affairs are at a standstill; that specie is being hastily withdrawn that there is a complete absence of credit, and that enormous loss is thus caused to the country. #### THE CHINA REVIEW. PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY. TENTH YEAR.

TIHIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of "Notes and Queries on China and Japan," has reached its Tenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the "For East" and about which every intelligent person con-nected with Chine or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally

. The Review department receives special attention, and 'endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowiedge on obscure points.

farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various

Original contributions in Chinose, Latin or any of the Modern Languages are recoived. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the 1mperial Customs, and Hongkong Services. and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high dogree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously custivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, Hirth, an I Hance, Professor Legge, and Masses B dfour, Watters, Stant, Phillips, Mcclatyre, Grant, James son, Faber, Kopseli, Parker, Playfair, Giles, and Piton, - all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject. The Subscription is fixed at 86.50 per annum, postage included - payable in ad Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, "Manager, China Mail Office.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS

"All our learned societies should sub scribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review."--Northern Christian Advocate (V S.) "The China Review * * * has an ex cellent table of contents." Celestial Empire. "The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers."-Celestial Empire. "This number contains several articles ofinterest and value." - North-China Herold "The present number of this periodical, * * * * opens with a review of the Foreign Trade of China during 1880. This is rather a new departure for a publication which professes to be purely literary; but considering the comparatively small circulation it enjoys at present among the commercial communities of China, we had the innovation as likely to recommend the Review to ( the notice of those who take an interest in few matters beyond mercantile pursuits." -

North-China Herald. "The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and To victors appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries

Daily News. "A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise."-Chrysanthemuin. "The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chi-

are as usual very interesting."-North-China

nese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. . . . Mr E. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechnen are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China Mr F. H. Ballour contributes paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number."—H.K. Daily Press. Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :-The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the naighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of at tention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable ; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chineso and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors

Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra. is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance.
